Blue Profundity: Contemporary Artists Revisit a Color

August 21, 2024 - December 20, 2024

Iris and B. Gerald Cantor Art Gallery, 1 College St. Worcester, MA 01608

Free and open to the public. See website for hours. Recurring daily.

This exhibition features contemporary artists who use the color blue in their work to highlight the symbolic and historic meanings of the color. Blue is celebrated as a marker of socioeconomic status in history, a symbol of cultural pride and economic exploitation, and as a metaphor for sadness and depression. Artworks such as blue-and-white porcelain, hand-pigmented paper pulp, and adire indigo fabric explore these concepts by updating forms and materials to reflect current-day concerns with a nod to historical precedent. Artists include Adam Chau, Ifé Franklin, Heather Evans Smith, Michelle Samour, and Andrea Pettway Williams.

Free

12:00 PM to 12:30 PM

Childhood: a time of innocence, joy, and promise. It is because of these associations that the suffering and loss of children seem more poignant and tragic. Violist Sergio Muñoz Leiva and pianist Matthew Jaskot present chamber music inspired by children and the complex emotions that arise when childhood intersects with war, social injustice, and death. Lighthearted compositions by Chick Corea (excerpts from Children's Songs) and Robert Schumann (excerpts from Kinderszenen) are contrasted by music by Mary Kouyoumdjian (A Boy and a Makeshift Toy), Victor Jara (Luchín), and Jaskot (Still, You Bloom in my Heart, world premiere). The program will be about 30 minutes long.

ValleyCAST & BVAA present "My Favorite Art Show" Exhibit

November 7, 2024 - December 23, 2024

ValleyCAST 50 Douglas Rd. Whitinsville, MA 01588

Free

9:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Regular Heritage Gallery hours are Monday - Friday from 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM excluding holidays.
Other arrangements and tours by appointment.

The Blackstone Valley Art Association has many talented members working in all media with a range of ability. The Gallery will be FULL of FAVORITE art works by BVAA members. This exhibit is sure to be a favorite of yours, too! Artists pour their souls into their creations. Each artwork could represent a different stage of the artist's life or just a step along their art making journey. How could an artist choose just one piece of art as their "favorite" creation? This show presents that very challenge!

Like Children: Black Prodigy and the Measure of the Human in America

November 26, 2024

American Antiquarian Society

185 Salisbury St., Worcester, MA 01609, (508) 755-5221

Free

7:00 PM to 8:00 PM

In this virtual program, Camille Owens draws from her book, Like Children: Black Prodigy and the Measure of the Human in America (2024) and nineteenth-century archives to present new insights into Black childhood. Highlighting examples of Black children’s performances, cultural representations, and labor in the 1800s, Owens illustrates how Black children were used in the construction of white childhood, in the empowerment of white men, and in the measure of the human—and explores what it means for the study of American childhood to recognize Black children at its center.

This free virtual program will be held on Zoom. Advance registration is required at americanantiquarian.org.
