See art in a new way.

How do you represent a suit of armor with roses? A portrait with peonies? A raging storm with tulips? This winter come closer to the art you thought you knew reimaged through floral arrangements throughout our galleries.

Related events for this four-day event will include talks, demonstrations, tours, and special evening hours. There is something for everyone during this floral extravaganza.

Flora in Winter is a museum-wide takeover and general admission prices do not apply during this time.

MAPLE DAYS at Old Sturbridge Village Wednesday - Sunday, February 19th - March 9th

1 Old Sturbridge Village Road, Sturbridge, MA

$3 per adult daytime admission for up to four people per EBT or WIC card.

<https://www.osv.org/>

For many at Old Sturbridge Village, the first whiff of spring isn't the aroma of spring flowers – it's the smell of wood smoke and maple syrup, a sure sign that the sap is rising and spring is on the way. Join us for “Maple Days” on select dates in February and March, when the Village’s working sugar camp demonstrates maple sugaring as it was done in early 19th-century New England.
